Letter No. P.S. 8-[illegible]/1900 dated the 19th February 1906 from the Post Master General, Madras to the First Assistant to the Hon'ble Resident, Mysore.

I have the honor to say that the accompanying cover which was despatched on "Mysore Government Service" by a member of the Shravan Belgola Mutt was taxed with postage as there was a doubt whether the cover was entitled to free. It has been ascertained that the authorities of the Mutt are not members of local Boards, municipalities or institutions supported by the funds of such bodies and the Superintendent of the Post Offices Shimoga Division, reports that they are not permitted for a long time past to superscribe articles "On Mysore Government Service" under instructions from the Amildar Bukshi.

2. A refund of the postage has been claimed in this case and I beg to enquire whether, in reference to para 2 of my letter No. 3611 dated the 9th February 1906, the correspondence of the authorities of the Shravan Belgola Mutt was treated by the Mysore Durbar as official at the time of the amalgamation of the Amelie with the Imperial Post.
